HEYDOH Single Origin Black Soybeans

HEYDOH Silky Soy Sauce

- Classic Soy Sauce: An all-purpose workhorse for any dish. Our select-harvest whole black soybeans are naturally high in protein and have an unique oomph that you can't get with conventional yellow beans. No added sugar, but you might catch a faint, natural sweetness on the finish.
- Silky Soy Sauce: This is a finishing sauce. It's luxurious and velvety, designed for dipping or drizzling. Brewed twice—first in salt water, then in soy sauce—it has a deeper umami backbone than others. A kiss of cane sugar gives it a glossy touch. With 50% less sodium than the big brands. It's so good, you can sip it.

TORTILLA CHIPS

The Ancient Art of Nixtamalization

It starts with whole corn kernels, gently cooked overnight in water and limestone — a traditional process passed down through generations. The result is a chip with depth of flavor, a satisfying crunch, and a story in every bite.

FRESH SALSAS

Fire-Roasted. Handcrafted. Pure.

Our salsas are made by hand using a handful of simple, fresh ingredients — carefully selected and harvested all year round. Every batch is fire-roasted to perfection, letting the natural flavors speak for themselves.

Not all water is the same.

We source our water from a carefully protected mountain spring in Southern California. We pair a high quality source with high quality filtration. Using a chemical-free, physical membrane filtration system, we ensure consistency and purity. After filtration, we rebalance our water with high quality, lab-tested minerals. The result reflects the average TDS range of our spring source, creating the clean, crisp taste profile we love.
